Supervisor Antonovich made the following statement:

“Los Angeles County citizens have been enriched by the contributions of people from all over the globe who have enhanced our cultural, economic and spiritual life. ‘Cultural Diversity Month’ provides an opportunity for Los Angeles County citizens to learn more about ourselves, our coworkers and our neighbors, and to increase our sensitivity towards one another, respect and appreciate our differences and similarities, and have more courage to speak against stereotyping and prejudice of any kind.

“‘Cultural Diversity Month’ also provides an opportunity for our youth to interact in a harmonious and equitable way, to view the County’s pluralism as a blessing, and to be inspired with the dream of achieving an inclusive, multicultural community.”

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Antonovich, seconded by Supervisor Knabe, unanimously carried (Supervisors Molina and Burke being absent), the Board proclaimed October 2006 as “Cultural Diversity Month” throughout Los Angeles County; and urged all residents to strive to respect each others differences and commonalities, and to mark this month in appropriate ways.
